NO. 173.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by
A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

The TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, is published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.
A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.
J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unequalled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The WEEKLY will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.
Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

Proclamation of the Governor.

Whereas, numerous applications have been made to me from many good citizens of this Commonwealth, praying me to issue a proclamation forbidding the march of any forces of this or any other State or States over our soil, to make an apprehended attack upon the Federal forces at Cairo, in Illinois, or to disturb in any otherwise the peaceful attitude of Kentucky with reference to the deplorable war now waging between the United States and the Confederate States. And whereas, numerous applications from like good citizens of this Commonwealth have also been made to me, praying me to issue a proclamation forbidding the occupation of any post or place, or the march over our sacred soil by any force of the United States for any purpose. And whereas, it is made fully evident, by every indication of public sentiment, that it is the determined purpose of the good people of Kentucky to maintain, with courageous firmness, the fixed position of self-defense, proposing or intending no invasion or aggression towards any other State or States, forbidding the quartering of troops upon her soil by either of the hostile sections, but simply standing aloof from an unnatural, horrid, and lamentable strife, for the existence of which Kentucky, neither by thought, word, nor act, is in any wise responsible. And whereas, the policy thus recommended by so many of my fellow-citizens of all political leanings, is, in my judgment, wise, peaceful, safe, and honorable, and the most likely to preserve peace and amity between the neighboring bordering States on both shores of the Ohio river, and protect Kentucky, generally, from the ravages of a deplorable war. And whereas, the arms distributed to the "State Guard," composed as it is of gentlemen equally conscientious and honest, who entertain the opinions of both parties, are not to be used against the Federal Government nor the Confederate States, but to resist and prevent encroachments upon her soil, her rights, her honor, and her sovereignty by either of the belligerent parties, and to preserve the peace, safety, prosperity, and happiness and strict neutrality of her people, in the hope she may soon have an opportunity to become a successful mediator between them; and in order to remove the unfounded distrust and suspicions of purposes to force Kentucky out of the Union, at the point of the bayonet, which have been so strongly and wickedly engendered in the public mind and in regard to my own position and that of the "State Guard";

Now, therefore, I, BERIAH MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and Commander-in-Chief of all her military forces, on land or water, have issued this my proclamation, hereby notifying and warning all other States, whether separate or united, and especially the "United States" and the "Confederate States," that I solemnly forbid any movement upon the soil of Kentucky or the occupation of any post, port, or place whatever within the lawful boundary and jurisdiction of this State, by any of the forces under the orders of the States aforesaid, for any purpose whatever, until authorized by invitation or permission of the Legislative and Executive authorities of this State previously granted. I also hereby especially and solemnly forbid all good citizens of this Commonwealth, whether incorporated in the "State Guard" or otherwise, making any warlike or hostile demonstrations whatever against any of the authorities aforesaid, earnestly requesting all citizens, civil and military, to be obedient hereto; to be obedient to the laws and lawful orders of both the civil and military authorities; to remain when off military duty quietly and peaceably at their homes, pursuing their wonted lawful avocations; to refrain all words and acts likely to engender hot blood and provoke collision; to pursue such a line of wise conduct as will promote peace and tranquility, and a sense of safety and security, and thus keep far away from our beloved land and people the deplorable calamities of invasion; but at the same time earnestly counseling my fellow-citizens of Kentucky to make prompt and efficient preparations to assume the armor and attitude prescribed by the paramount and supreme law of self-defense, and strictly of self-defense alone; praying Almighty God to have us evermore in his holy keeping, and to preserve us in peace, prosperity, and security forever.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF
I have hereunto set my name, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 20th day of May, A. D. 1861, and in the 69th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor:
THOS. B. MONROE, JR., Sec'y of State.

NOW READY.

A Practical Treatise for the use of Justices of the Peace, Constables,
Sheriffs, Jailers, and Coroners
in Kentucky.

By RICHARD H. STANTON, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS NEW WORK, WHICH HAS been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of their respective duties under the laws of the state. Its arrangement is such, that while it presents to the officer a full view of the law which he may be called upon to enforce, whether civil or criminal, it affords him such complete and accurate instructions as to the practical manner of discharging his duties, in each particular case, that it will be almost impossible for the least informed among them to go astray.

Every necessary form which a justice of the peace, or other officer may require in the course of his official duties, will be found in its appropriate place in the work; and the instructions are so full, perspicuous and clear, that it will be found an invaluable official companion to those for whom the treatise is intended, and a highly useful work to the legal profession, and all others having business with those officers. The author has spared no labor to make it just such a work as is now most needed by the class of officers whose duties are so fully and clearly explained, and his well known accuracy and success will commend it to the hearty patronage of all persons in Kentucky concerned in the administration of the law.

The work contains six hundred and fifty octavo pages, is printed on fine paper, and with large, clear type, and bound in the very best style.

UNION DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS 8TH DISTRICT,
JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

Election takes place 20th of June.

FOR STATE TREASURER,
JAMES H. GARRARD.

FOR SENATE 20TH DISTRICT,
WILLIAM W. PENNY,

OF ANDERSON COUNTY.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE,
RICHARD C. ANDERSON.

Election takes place First Monday in August.

Col. Holt's Letter.

We surrender most of our space to the admirable and unanswerable letter of Col. Jos. Holt. Let not its length deter any one from its careful and thorough perusal. It is a perfect masterpiece of facts. It furnishes arguments enough to utterly demolish secession. We especially commend it to candidates and stump speakers.

Glorious Union Meeting—R. C. Anderson for the Legislature.

On Wednesday the Union Democracy of Franklin county assembled at the Court House, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent Franklin county in the next Legislature. There was a full representation from all parts of the county. After a short consultation of the delegates from the various precincts, Capt. R. C. Anderson was unanimously agreed upon as the candidate for that position.

We are one of those who know that Mr. Anderson was the first choice of a large number of the Union Democracy of this county, for that position. He was solicited to make the race as early as last March, but, on account of threatened indisposition, would not consent. He, however, could not decline the flattering and unanimous call made upon him by the large meeting of Wednesday. He accepted in a few eloquent and appropriate remarks, and is now fairly in the field.

Capt. Anderson is a firm Union man; a high toned, chivalrous gentleman; and should, and we have no doubt, will receive the vote of every Union man in Franklin county.

The meeting was then addressed by Messrs. Garrard, Jno. M. Harlan and Penny, who spoke eloquently and efficiently. Franklin county is fully aroused, and will give a good account of herself next August.

For the Commonwealth.

J. P. Sparks.

At a Convention of the Union party of Henry county, held at Frankfort, on the 10th inst., for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent this county in the next Legislature, J. P. Sparks, Esq., receiving a majority on the first ballot, obtained the nomination, which by vote of the Convention was made unanimous.

The nomination was received with wild enthusiasm, and with assurance that our able and gallant standard bearer shall be elected over any competitor that may be named against him by not less than 500 majority.

S. W. HUNT, Chairman.

Geo. C. DEANE, Secretary.

An Error Corrected.

CLAYVILLE, Ky., June 10, 1861.

Editor Frankfort Commonwealth:
DEAR SIR: I see the "Cynthiana News" has my name published as a delegate to the Convention that nominated the Hon. Wm. E. Simms for Congress, which I knew nothing of until the "News" published it; and if I had I should not have attended, for I cannot indorse all his notions, consequently could not vote for him. I voted the Union ticket at the May election, and shall vote for John J. Crittenden on the 20th of this month. Our precinct will give him a large majority.

Yours,
N. R. WHITEHEAD.

Flag Raising at Peak's Mill.

The Stars and Stripes will be raised at Peak's Mill, Saturday, June 15, 1861, at 2 o'clock. Come one, come all. The ladies are invited to attend. Speeches will be made by Col. James H. Garrard, candidate for State Treasurer, John M. Harlan, and Wm. H. Sneed. Haly's Brass Band has been engaged, and will certainly be in attendance.

WHAT THE WAR HAS DONE FOR ILLINOIS—Corn is selling throughout Illinois at 3 cents per bushel at the crib. The owners will have to consume it for fuel next winter, if the war does not stop.—Lou. Com.

That's one of the ways the Confederates have of starving the North.

If this war does not stop soon, perhaps the Confederates will have to eat their fuel for corn.

UNPARALLELED MAGNANIMITY—The Yeoman is informed that Col. Lloyd Tilghman, and two other men, came across seven armed men from Illinois and "magnanimously suffered them to depart" to the Sucker State.

Those seven men must feel thankful!—Three K. G. C.'s surround seven armed men, and then let them go! Oh!

Mr. Crittenden

Will address the people at Paris to-day; Cynthiana to-morrow, and Carlisle on Monday next. Let everybody turn out and hear him.

Union Meeting in Franklin.

At a meeting of the Union party of the county of Franklin, held at the Court-house in Frankfort, on June 12, 1861, Henry Wingate, Esq., was called to the chair, and Dr. J. M. Mills appointed Secretary.

The chairman stated the object of the meeting to select a candidate to represent Franklin county in the next Legislature, T. N. Lindsey, Esq., who was nominated at a former meeting, having declined.

On motion of Capt. H. I. Todd, it was—
Resolved, That for every twenty votes cast at the various precincts of the county at the May election for commissioners to the Border State Conference, one vote be allowed for the selection of a candidate for the Legislature at this meeting, and for every fraction over ten one additional vote.

The voters of the different precincts retired for consultation, and reported as follows:
Two Frankfort Precincts, for R. C. Anderson.

Forks of Elkhorn, for R. C. Anderson.
Peak's Mill, for R. C. Anderson.
Bald Knob, for R. C. Anderson.
Bridgeport, for R. C. Anderson.

The nomination of Capt. Anderson was then declared unanimous, and with great enthusiasm.

The meeting was addressed by Capt. R. C. Anderson, Dr. A. Neat, Col. Jas. H. Garrard, Gen. John M. Harlan, and W. W. Penny, Esq., candidate for the State Senate.

The meeting then adjourned.

H. WINGATE, President.

J. M. MILLS, Secretary.

The Vote of Woodford County.

VERSAILES, June 11, 1861.

Editor of the Commonwealth:

In a recent number of your paper it is stated that the county of Woodford, with other counties mentioned, had failed to furnish returns of the result of the election, held on the 4th of May last, for delegates to the Border Slave States Convention, which would imply that the Board of Examiners for Woodford had failed to discharge their duties.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Revised Statutes, the Board of Examiners, composed of the County Judge, Clerk and Sheriff of Woodford, met on the day prescribed by law, at the Clerk's office of the County Court of said county, compared the polls, ascertained the correctness of the summing up of the votes, and gave the required certificates, one of which it seems the Clerk of the County Court, whose duty it was by law to forward to the Secretary of State, failed to forward. The omission, if any, was occasioned by the neglect of the clerk, and not of the Board of Examiners.

Will you be pleased, as an act of justice to the Judge and Sheriff, give this an insertion in your paper. Respectfully,
W. J. STEELE, P. J. W. C. C.

Jeff. Davis appears to be about as great a failure as a military leader, as his miserable Confederacy is a government.—As yet he has accomplished nothing beyond bragging, and he is likely to accomplish less in the future. He is a brave man, and no doubt could lead a column or a regiment into battle as well as anybody else, but commanding an entire army is a different and more difficult matter.

FLAG RAISING.—A large and beautiful flag was raised, in the presence of an immense crowd, near Mr. Crittenden's residence on Wednesday evening. It floats one hundred feet above the earth, and bears upon its folds the emblems of union and strength. Speeches were made by James Harlan, Jr., and Gen. Combs, and, taken altogether, the occasion was one of interest and pleasure.

JAMES HARLAN, JR.—The speech of this gentleman on the occasion of the flag raising on Wednesday evening was one of the best to which we ever listened. He is an orator of the first class. If his brother John M. don't "watch out," "Jim" will jump over his head, and leave him in the back ground—a thing which would be pretty hard to do.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY.—William Brown, Esq., the late able representative from Christian county, having peremptorily declined a reelection, the Union party there have nominated Col. Geo. Poindexter to represent them in the lower House of our next Legislature. It is a most excellent selection, and Mr. Poindexter will be elected by a tremendous majority.

We learn that John L. Vanwinkle is the Union candidate to represent the county of Wayne in the House of Representatives of our next Legislature. Mr. Vanwinkle is an able man, and is also a strong Union man. We have no doubt that he will be elected.

A letter dated Millford, Bracken county, Ky., says: "There is a tree at Browningsville, in this county, that bore last year a fine crop of peaches, and it was full of peach blossoms this spring. Now it is full of plums, and not a peach upon it."

MILTON BUSTER, Esq., is the Union candidate for the State Senate in the Pulaski District, and has, as yet, no opposition. He will make an able and a faithful Union Senator.

Godey's Lady's Book for July is on our table. It is one of the best numbers of this popular periodical we have ever seen.

Call on Keenon & Gibbons, and get a copy at 25 cents.

P. Swigert, Esq., of this city, was appointed, on Tuesday last, Secretary to the Military Board of Commissioners now in session.

The post office address of Blanton Duncan's regiment is not Washington yet. That is singular.

Correspondence.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 7.

Hon. C. S. Morehead:

DEAR SIR—You have published a letter in the Louisville Journal and a dissent from the address of the Border State Convention to the people of the United States, from which some have drawn the inference that you are opposed to the election of Mr. Crittenden to the next Congress. You have been long identified with the people of this Congressional district, and have maintained with Mr. Crittenden the most intimate personal relations, and as no man is better entitled to a hearing from our people, if you have no objection I would be gratified to know from yourself whether the inference above referred to is correct.

Very truly your friend,
W. A. DUDLEY.

LEXINGTON, June 7, 1861.

W. A. Dudley, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—I have this moment received your note of this date, in which you ask me if the inference drawn from my address to the public, that I was opposed to the election of Mr. Crittenden to the next Congress of the United States, was correct.

I have only to say that both papers were written without the slightest intention or thought on my part of their having any effect on the Congressional election in any district in the State, and I take especial pains in saying that any inference which may have been drawn from them, that I was opposed to the election of Mr. Crittenden, is altogether erroneous. On the contrary, southern as I am in my feelings, I have no hesitation whatever in saying that I should, if I lived in the district, give him my warm and most cordial support.

It was my anxious desire that the Southern Rights men should make no opposition to Mr. Crittenden, and I believe that such was a very general feeling with that party. I hope that this will yet be done. I have known him from my infancy, and with relations personal and political, of the most intimate character during the greater portion of my life, I may be allowed to say that I never knew a purer or better man, or a nobler or more unselfish patriot. I have been constrained to differ with him in some things, but this difference as far as I understand it, would not apply to his action as a member of Congress. In my dissent to the address to the people of the United States, I have endeavored to show that the only real issue now before the country, was whether the eleven seceded States should be whipped into obedience—that, in the language of the late Senator Douglas, "is disunion, a final and eternal separation." Although not authorized in any manner to speak for him, I believe that there is no man living who would exert more energy, or a more persuasive influence in arresting the mad career and wild frenzy of the North than John J. Crittenden. We want the armies of Black Republicanism withdrawn from Southern soil, and peace restored. If the voice and influence of any living man can be potential in bringing about such a result, I think it would be that of Mr. Crittenden. His whole past life is a guaranty for his zeal and efficiency and devoted patriotism in supporting the position which by almost universal consent Kentucky now maintains.

Respectfully,
C. S. MOREHEAD.

HOME GUARD.—At a meeting of the members of the Frankfort Home Guard, Company A, at their armory, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., Mr. R. C. Anderson resigned the office of Captain, and Dr. J. M. Mills was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

J. W. Batchelor was elected 3rd Lieutenant.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Frankfort Home Guard, Company A, hereby unanimously express their high regard for our recent Captain, R. C. Anderson, and tender to him our best wishes for his future welfare.

DIED.

May 31st, 1861, Col. James Davidson, aged 83 years, 8 months, and 18 days.

On the 8th inst., at the residence of his grandmother, Mrs. James Davidson, in the county of Lincoln, John, son of John N. and Lucy Markham, aged 4 years, 7 months, and 22 days.

We shall miss this sprightly little boy from our midst. He had attractive qualities that endeared him to all. Quiet and humorous, yet manly, John, as he was familiarly styled, was ever an object of interest and affection. His parents have our sincere sympathies in their heavy bereavement.

That brow is cold;
Those eyes
No more my face behold;
Alas! he lies
Within death's fold.
He dwells with God.
His feet
With heavenly sandals shod,
Traverse the street
By angel's trod.
Then let him sleep;
His dreams
Are bliss. Dear Saviour keep
Near Eden's streams
The lamb we weep.

DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE?

Bellingham's celebrated Stimulating Ointment for the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING OINTMENT is prepared by Dr. C. P. Bellingham, an eminent physician of London, and warranted to bring out a thick set of WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or grey hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "Ointment" is an indispensable article in every Gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Ointment" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire by mail (direct) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to, or address, HORACE L. HEGEMAN & CO., DRUGGISTS, &c., feb22-6m* 24 William St., New York.

SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,

TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallery of C. A. Clark, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to visit on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire. In his gallery he has the most perfect Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced. The Ivorytype, (made only at this Gallery), is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delivery of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

AYER'S Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Malarial Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in bilious derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER and AGUE from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest.

The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where FEVER and AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection.

It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteria, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all.

It is an invaluable preservative against malarial and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. They purify the system, cleanse the bowels, and improve the action of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain, or physical debility is enabled to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Headache, Heartburn arising from indigestion of Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from low state of the body or derangement of its functions. They are an excellent alternative for the renovation of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what and why to purchase for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this gentle and safe remedy has stood the test of time on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
